Data Protection Policy

Introduction

The UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) ensures a balance between an individual's rights to privacy and the lawful processing of personal data undertaken by organisations in the course of their business. It aims to protect the rights of individuals about whom data is obtained, stored, processed or supplied and requires that organisations take appropriate security measures against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of personal data.

The School will protect and maintain a balance between data protection rights in accordance with the UK GDPR. This policy sets out how we handle the personal data of our pupils, parents, suppliers, employees, governors, volunteers and any other third parties.

This policy does not form part of any individual's terms and conditions of employment with the School and is not intended to have contractual effect. Changes to data protection legislation will be monitored and further amendments may be required to this policy in order to remain compliant with legal obligations.

All members of staff are required to familiarise themselves with its content and comply with the provisions contained in it. Staff is defined by employees, governors, trustees and volunteers. Breach of this policy will be treated as a disciplinary offence which may result in disciplinary action under the School's Disciplinary Policy and Procedure up and including dismissal depending on the seriousness of the breach.

The School is registered with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) as required. Our ICO Registration reference number is: Z9064510

Section 1 – Definitions

Personal Data

Personal data is any information relating to an individual where the individual can be identified (directly or indirectly) from that data alone or in combination with other identifiers we possess or can reasonably access. This includes special category data and pseudonymised personal data but excludes anonymous data or data that has had the identity of an individual permanently removed.

Personal data can be factual (for example, a name, email address, location or date of birth) or an opinion about that person's actions or behaviour.

Personal data will be stored either electronically or as part of a structured manual filing system in such a way that it can be retrieved automatically by reference to the individual or criteria relating to that individual.

Special Category Data and Data Relating to Criminal Convictions and Offences

Previously termed "Sensitive Personal Data", Special Category Data is similar by definition and refers to data concerning an individual Data Subject's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, physical and mental health, sexuality and biometric or genetic data.

Personal data relating to criminal offences and convictions is included here for the purposes of this policy. This refers to personal information relating to criminal convictions and offences, allegations, proceedings, and related security measures.

Data Subject	An individual about whom such information is stored is known as the Data Subject. It includes but is not limited to employees.
Data Controller	The organisation storing and controlling such information (i.e., the School) is referred to as the Data Controller.
Processing	Processing data involves any activity that involves the use of personal data. This includes but is not limited to: obtaining, recording or holding data or carrying out any operation or set of operations on that data such as organisation, amending, retrieving, using, disclosing, erasing or destroying it. Processing also includes transmitting or transferring personal data to third parties.
Automated Processing	Any form of automated processing of personal data consisting of the use of personal data to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to an individual, in particular to analyse or predict aspects concerning that individual's performance at work, economic situation, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, behaviour, location or movements. Examples of automated processing includes profiling and automated decision making. Automatic decision-making is when a decision is made which is based solely on automated processing (without meaningful human intervention).
Data Protection Impact Assessment (DPIA)	DPIAs are a tool used to identify risks in data processing activities with a view to reducing them.
Data Breach	A breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data.
Pseudonymised	The process by which personal data is processed in such a way that that it cannot be used to identify an individual without the use of additional data, which is kept separately and subject to technical and organisational measures to ensure that the personal data cannot be attributed to an identifiable individual.

Section 2 – When can the School Process Personal Data?

Data Protection Principles

The School are responsible for and adhere to the principles relating to the processing of personal data as set out in the UK GDPR. The principles the School must adhere to are set out below.

Principle 1: Personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner

The School only collect, process and share personal data fairly and lawfully and for specified purposes.

DATA PROTECTION POLICY
(with SAR & Complaints appendices)

Version No: 14
Version Date: 06.03.2026
Review Date: 20/04/2026 SB

The School must have a specified purpose for processing personal data and special category data as set out in the UK GDPR.

Before the processing starts for the first time, we will review the purposes of the particular processing activity and select the most appropriate lawful basis for that processing. We will then regularly review those purposes whilst processing continues in order to satisfy ourselves that the processing is necessary for the purpose of the relevant lawful basis (i.e., that there is no other reasonable way to achieve that purpose).

Personal Data

The School may only process a data subject's personal data if one of the following lawful bases are met:

- The data subject has given their consent;
- The processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject or for taking steps at their request to enter into a contract;
- To protect the data subject's vital interests;
- To meet our legal compliance obligations (other than a contractual obligation);
- To perform a task in the public interest or in order to carry out official functions as authorised by law;
- For the purposes of the School's legitimate interests where authorised in accordance with data protection legislation. This is provided that it would not prejudice the rights and freedoms or legitimate interests of the data subject.
- The processing is necessary for a recognised legitimate interest under the UK GDPR (as amended by the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025).

Special Category Data

The School may only process special category data if they are entitled to process personal data (using one of the lawful bases above) AND one of the following conditions are met: -

- The data subject has given their explicit consent;
- The processing is necessary for the purposes of exercising or performing any right or obligation which is conferred or imposed on the School in the field of employment law, social security law or social protection law. This may include, but is not limited to, dealing with sickness absence, dealing with disability and making adjustments for the same, arranging private health care insurance and providing contractual sick pay;
- To protect the data subject's (or another person's) vital interests, where the data subject is unable to give consent;
- The processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity
- Where the data has been made public by the data subject;

- To perform a task in the substantial public interest or in order to carry out official functions as authorised by law;
- Where it is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services;
- Where it is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health;
- The processing is necessary for archiving, statistical or research purposes.

The School identifies and documents the legal grounds being relied upon for each processing activity.

Criminal Record Data

Where criminal records data is processed, a lawful condition for processing that data is also identified and documented.

Consent

Where the School relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing (as set out above), it will adhere to the requirements set out in the UK GDPR.

Consent must be freely given, specific, informed and be an unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which they signify agreement to the processing of personal data relating to them. Explicit consent is needed in cases of processing special category data and requires a very clear and specific statement to be relied upon (i.e. more than just mere action is required).

A data subject will have consented to processing of their non-special category personal data if they indicate agreement clearly either by a statement or positive action to the processing. Consent requires affirmative action so silence, pre-ticked boxes or inactivity will not amount to valid consent.

Data subjects must be easily able to withdraw consent to processing at any time and withdrawal must be promptly honoured.

In cases of processing special category data and explicit consent, the School will normally seek another legal basis to process that data. However, if explicit consent is required, the data subject will be provided with full information in order to provide explicit consent.

The School will keep records of consents obtained in order to demonstrate compliance with consent requirements under the UK GDPR.

Principle 2: Personal data must be collected only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes

Personal data will not be processed in any manner that is incompatible with the legitimate purposes specified.

The School will not use personal data for new, different or incompatible purposes from that disclosed when it was first obtained unless we have informed the data subject of the new purpose (and they have consented where necessary).

Principle 3: Personal data must be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it is processed

The School will only process personal data when our obligations and duties require us to. We will not collect excessive data and will ensure any personal data collected is adequate and relevant for the intended purposes.

When personal data is no longer needed for specified purposes, the School shall delete or anonymise the data. [Please refer to the School's Data Retention Policy for further guidance.

Principle 4: Personal data must be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date

The School will endeavour to correct or delete any inaccurate data being processed by checking the accuracy of the personal data at the point of collection and at regular intervals afterwards. We will take all reasonable steps to destroy or amend inaccurate or out of date personal data.

Data subjects also have an obligation to ensure that their data is accurate, complete, up to date and relevant. Data subjects have the right to request rectification to incomplete or inaccurate data held by the School.

Principle 5: Personal data must not be kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the data is processed

Legitimate purposes for which the data is being processed may include satisfying legal, accounting or reporting requirements. The School will ensure that they adhere to legal timeframes for retaining data.

We will take reasonable steps to destroy or erase from our systems all personal data that we no longer require. We will also ensure that data subjects are informed of the period for which data is stored and how that period is determined in our privacy notices.

Please refer to the School's Retention Policy for further details about how the School retains and removes data.

Principle 6: Personal data must be processed in a manner that ensures its security using appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage

In order to ensure the protection of all data being processed, the School will develop, implement and maintain reasonable safeguard and security measures. This includes using measures such as: -

- Encryption;
- Pseudonymisation (as outlined above);
- Ensuring authorised access on both hard copy and electronic files (i.e. that only people who have a need to know the personal data are authorised to access it);
- Adhering to confidentiality principles;
- Ensuring personal data is accurate and suitable for the process for which it is processed.

The School follow procedures and technologies to ensure security and will regularly evaluate and test the effectiveness of those safeguards to ensure security in processing personal data.

The School will only transfer personal data to third party service providers who agree to comply with the required policies and procedures and agree to put adequate measures in place.

Sharing Personal Data

The School will generally not share personal data with third parties unless certain safeguards and contractual arrangements have been put in place. The following points will be considered:

- Whether the third party has a need to know the information for the purposes of providing the contracted services;
- Whether sharing the personal data complies with the privacy notice that has been provided to the data subject and, if required, the data subject's consent has been obtained;
- Whether the third party has agreed to comply with the required data security standards, policies and procedures and implemented adequate security measures;
- Whether the transfer complies with any applicable cross border transfer restrictions; and
- Whether a fully executed written contract that contains UK GDPR approved third party clauses has been obtained.

There may be circumstances where the School is required either by law or in the best interests of our pupils, parents or staff to pass information onto external authorities for example, the Local Authority, Ofsted, Catholic Diocese of Northampton Education Service or the Department of Health. These authorities are up to date with data protection law and have their own policies relating to the protection of any data that they receive or collect.

The intention to share data relating to individuals to an organisation outside of the School shall be clearly defined within written notifications including details and the basis for sharing the data. Further information can be found in the privacy notice.

Transfer of Data Outside the UK

The UK GDPR restricts the transfer of personal data to countries or international organisations outside of the UK to ensure that individuals' data continues to receive an adequate level of protection.

The School will not transfer personal data outside of the UK unless:

- the destination country is covered by a UK adequacy regulation;
- appropriate safeguards are in place, such as a UK International Data Transfer Agreement (IDTA) or an approved set of standard contractual clauses, and enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies are available;
- a specific derogation applies under Article 49 UK GDPR (for example, the transfer is necessary for an important reason of public interest).

All staff must comply with the School's guidelines on transferring personal data outside of the UK. For clarity, a "transfer" may occur whenever personal data are sent, accessed, viewed, or otherwise made available from outside the UK.

The School monitors any international transfers with support from the Data Protection Officer (DPO) and maintain records of our transfer assessments alongside a Third-Party Data Sharing Register.

Section 3 – Data Subject’s Rights and Requests

Personal data must be made available to data subjects as set out within this policy and data subjects must be allowed to exercise certain rights in relation to their personal data.

The rights data subjects have in relation to how the School handle their personal data are set out below:

- (a) To withdraw consent to processing at any time (where consent is relied upon as a condition of processing);
- (b) Receive certain information about the School's processing activities;
- (c) Request access to their personal data that we hold (see “Subject Access Requests” at Appendix 1);
- (d) Prevent our use of their personal data for direct marketing purposes;
- (e) Ask us to erase personal data if it is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which it was collected or processed or to rectify inaccurate data or to complete incomplete data;
- (f) Restrict processing in specific circumstances, such as where the accuracy of the data is contested or an objection is being considered
- (g) Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of legitimate interests or in the public interest;
- (h) Request a copy of an agreement under which personal data is transferred outside of the UK;
- (i) To be informed where decision that has legal or similarly significant effects is made solely by automated means, and to request human intervention, express their point of view, or contest a decision;
- (j) Be notified of a personal data breach which is likely to result in high risk to their rights and freedoms;
- (k) To raise a concern or make a complaint directly to the School if they believe their personal data has been processed unlawfully or unfairly, or if they are dissatisfied with the School's response to a data protection request. Individuals also have the right to make a complaint to the supervisory authority, which is the Information Commissioner in England and Wales (<https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>); and
- (l) In limited circumstances, receive or ask for their personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.

If any request is made to exercise the rights above, it is a requirement for the relevant staff member within the School to verify the identity of the individual making the request.

Direct Marketing

The School are subject to certain rules and privacy laws when marketing. For example, a data subject's prior consent will be required for electronic direct marketing (for example, by email, text or automated calls).

The School will explicitly offer individuals the opportunity to object to direct marketing and will do so in an intelligible format which is clear for the individual to understand. The School will promptly respond to any individual objection to direct marketing.

Employee Obligations

Employees may have access to the personal data of other members of staff, suppliers, parents or pupils of the School in the course of their employment or engagement. If so, the School expects those employees to help meet the School's data protection obligations to those individuals. Specifically, you must: -

- Only access the personal data that you have authority to access, and only for authorised purposes;
- Only allow others to access personal data if they have appropriate authorisation;
- Keep personal data secure (for example, by complying with rules on access to school premises, computer access, password protection and secure file storage and destruction
- Not remove personal data or devices containing personal data from the School premises unless appropriate security measures are in place (such as pseudonymisation, encryption, password protection) to secure the information;
- Not store personal information on local drives.

Section 4 - Accountability

The School will ensure compliance with data protection principles by implementing appropriate technical and organisational measures. We are responsible for and demonstrate accountability with the UK GDPR principles.

The School have taken the following steps to ensure and document UK GDPR compliance:-

Data Protection Officer (DPO)

Please find below details of the School's Data Protection Officer: -

Data Protection Officer: Judicium Consulting Limited

Should the matter remain unresolved or require further escalation, please contact the school's DPO.

In particular, you can contact the DPO in the following circumstances:

- (a) If you are unsure of the lawful basis being relied on by the School to process personal data;
- (b) If you need to rely on consent as a lawful basis for processing (please see below the section on consent for further detail);

- (k) If you need help complying with applicable law when carrying out direct marketing activities;
- (l) If you need help with any contracts, data processing agreements or other areas in relation to sharing personal data with third parties.

Data Subject Complaints

Individuals have the right to make a complaint directly to us if they believe their data protection rights have been breached.

We will acknowledge receipt within 30 days and provide a substantive response without undue delay. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may escalate the matter to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Further information about how the school handles data protection complaints can be found at Appendix 3 of this policy, along with a data protection complaints form at Appendix 4. Complaints can be made in writing to the Headteacher via the school office ( office@stbernadettesschool.com ) in writing.

Personal Data Breaches

The UK GDPR requires the School to notify any applicable personal data breach to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Commented [SH1]: Following the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025, organisations are required to have a process for handling data protection complaints, which must be acknowledged in 30 days and responded to fully without undue delay.

If you prefer to incorporate data protection complaints into your existing complaints procedure, or you already have a data protection complaints procedure, please amend this section as needed.

If you are following a different complaints process to that which is set out in this policy, we strongly recommend seeking advice from your DPO to ensure that your process is compliant with the UK GDPR as amended by the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025.

Commented [SH2]: During school closure periods, schools should set up an automatic reply to acknowledge complaints and confirm that they will be responded to without undue delay once the school reopens

Document Control

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify data subjects or any applicable regulator where we are legally required to do so. Please refer to our Data Breach Policy. This is available via the school office.

If you know or suspect that a personal data breach has occurred, do not attempt to investigate the matter yourself. Immediately contact the person designated as the key point of contact for personal data breaches who is the Headteacher or the School DPO.

Transparency and Privacy Notices

The School will provide detailed, specific information to data subjects. This information will be provided through the School's privacy notices which are concise, transparent, intelligible, easily accessible and in clear and plain language so that a data subject can easily understand them. The School's privacy notices are tailored to suit the data subject and set out information about how the School use their data.

Whenever we collect personal data directly from data subjects, including for human resources or employment purposes, we will provide the data subject with all the information required by the UK GDPR. This includes the identity of the Data Protection Officer, the School's contact details, how and why we will use, process, disclose, protect and retain personal data. This information will be provided within our privacy notices.

When personal data is collected indirectly (for example, from a third party or a publicly available source), where appropriate, we will provide the data subject with the above information as soon as possible after receiving the data. The School will also confirm whether that third party has collected and processed data in accordance with the UK GDPR.

Notifications shall be in accordance with ICO guidance and where relevant, be written in a form understandable by those defined as "children" under the UK GDPR.

Privacy by Design

The School adopt a privacy by design approach to data protection to ensure that we adhere to data compliance and to implement technical and organisational measures in an effective manner.

Privacy by design is an approach that promotes privacy and data protection compliance from the start. To help us achieve this, the School takes into account the nature and purposes of the processing, any cost of implementation and any risks to rights and freedoms of data subjects when implementing data processes.

Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIAs)

In order to achieve a privacy by design approach, the School conduct DPIAs for any new high-risk technologies or programmes being used by the School which could affect the processing of personal data. The School carries out DPIAs when required by the UK GDPR in the following circumstances: -

- For the use of new technologies (programs, systems or processes) or changing technologies;
- For the use of automated processing;
- For large scale processing of special category data; and
- For large scale, systematic monitoring of a publicly accessible area (for example, through the use of CCTV).

Commented [CS3]: We recommend having a Data Breach Policy in place. If you don't have one or are in the process of implementing one, then replace "have" with "will".

Our DPIAs contain: -

- A description of the processing, its purposes and any legitimate interests used;
- Details of what types of data are shared;
- Steps taken by the third party and the school in order to protect data;
- An assessment of the necessity and proportionality of the processing in relation to its purpose;
- An assessment of the risk to individuals; and
- The risk mitigation measures in place and demonstration of compliance.

Record Keeping

The School are required to keep full and accurate records of our data processing activities (Records of Processing Activities (ROPA)). These records include: -

- The name and contact details of the School;
- The name and contact details of the Data Protection Officer;
- Descriptions of the types of personal data used;
- Description of the data subjects;
- Details of the School's processing activities and purposes;
- Details of any third party recipients of the personal data;
- Where personal data is stored;
- Retention periods; and
- Security measures in place.

Training

The School will ensure all relevant personnel have undergone adequate training to enable them to comply with data privacy laws. The school will carry out adequate training with all staff annually.

Audit

The School, through its Data Protection Officer, regularly test our data systems and processes in order to assess compliance. These are done through data audits which take place annually in order to review use of personal data.

Related Policies

Staff should refer to the following policies that are related to this Data Protection Policy: -

Data Retention Policy, Data Breach Policy, Privacy Notices.

These policies are also designed to protect personal data and can be found on the school website and requested via the school office.

Monitoring

We will monitor the effectiveness of this and all of our policies and procedures and conduct a full review and update as appropriate.

Our monitoring and review will include looking at how our policies and procedures are working in practice to reduce the risks posed to the School.

Section 5 – Automated Processing and Automated Decision Making

Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are required to ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place when using automated decision making for significant decisions and the circumstances in which we are permitted to use special category data (sensitive information) in automated decision making are limited.

You will not be subject to automated decision making for significant decisions unless we have a lawful basis for doing so, including a valid condition where required, and appropriate safeguards are in place. Appropriate safeguards include informing the relevant individuals about the automated decision making and their rights to request a human review, express their views, and contest the decision.

The School will carry out a data protection impact assessment before any new automated processing or automated decision-making activities are undertaken.

Commented [LK4]: If your school uses AI systems that make decisions about people, please consult with your DPO to determine if this falls within the ICO's definition of automated decision making.

Appendix 1 – Subject Access Requests

Under Data Protection Law, data subjects have a general right to find out whether the School hold or process personal data about them, to access that data, and to be given supplementary information. This is known as the right of access or the right to make a data subject access request (SAR). The purpose of the right is to enable the individual to be aware of and verify the lawfulness of the processing of personal data that the School are undertaking. It is designed to assist individuals in understanding how and why we are using their data and to check that we are doing so lawfully. The main provisions are to be found in Articles 12 and 15 of the UK GDPR and Section 45 of the Data Protection Act 2018.

This appendix provides guidance for staff members on how data subject access requests should be handled and for all individuals on how to make a SAR.

Failure to comply with the right of access under UK GDPR puts both staff and the School at potentially significant risk and so the School takes compliance with this policy very seriously.

A data subject has the right to be informed by the School of the following: -

1. Confirmation that their personal data is being processed;
2. Access to their personal data;
3. The following 'supplementary information':
  - a. The purposes of processing;
  - b. The categories of personal data concerned;
  - c. The recipients or categories of recipients to whom the data have been or will be disclosed;
  - d. Where possible, the period for which the data will be stored, or the criteria used to determine that period;
  - e. The existence of the data subject's rights to rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and data portability;
  - f. The right to lodge a complaint with the ICO;
  - g. Where the data were not collected directly from the individual, any available information about the source;
  - h. Any automated decision-making, including profiling, and information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and envisaged consequences of such processing; and,
  - i. Where relevant, details of the safeguards applied to data transferred outside the UK.

Dealing with a SAR is time critical and must be prioritised. Other than in exceptional cases, we will have only one month in which to respond to a SAR and even if an extension of the time limit is permitted, the individual must still be informed within that month of the fact that the request will take longer to process and the reasons for the delay. Failure to deal with a SAR within that period could leave us open to the possibility of being fined by the ICO.

All staff must be aware of the potential for receiving a SAR and the importance of dealing with such as request as a matter of urgency.

Anyone within the School may receive a SAR. It does not need to be made to a nominated person or even to a person responsible for dealing with either the data subject or information of that type. It will be equally as valid if sent to anyone within the school.

If you receive a SAR, please contact the Headteacher immediately. A request for information does not need to mention that it is a SAR provided that it is clear that it is an individual asking for their own personal data. There is no specified wording and it does not have to be on an official form. A SAR does not need to be in writing and can be made verbally, by post, by email or even using social media where relevant.

How to Recognise a Subject Access Request

A data subject access request is a request from an individual (or from someone acting with the authority of an individual, e.g., a solicitor or a parent making a request in relation to information relating to their child):

- for confirmation as to whether the School process personal data about him or her and, if so
- for access to that personal data
- and/or certain other supplementary information (listed above).

A valid SAR can be both in writing (by letter, email, WhatsApp text, social media) or verbally (e.g., during a telephone conversation or meeting). The request may refer to the UK GDPR and/or to 'data protection' and/or to 'personal data' but does not need to do so in order to be a valid request. For example, a letter which states 'please provide me with a copy of information that the School hold about me' would constitute a data subject access request and should be treated as such.

A data subject is generally only entitled to access their own personal data and not information relating to other people.

How to Make a Data Subject Access Request

Whilst there is no requirement to do so, we encourage any individuals who wish to make such a request to make the request in writing, detailing exactly the personal data being requested. This allows the School to easily recognise that you wish to make a data subject access request and the nature of your request. If the request is unclear/vague we may be required to clarify the scope of the request which may in turn delay the start of the time period for dealing with the request.

If a request is made verbally, we will ensure we follow this up with something in writing to confirm what has been requested and outline the timeframe for dealing with the request.

What to do When You Receive a Data Subject Access Request

All data subject access requests should be immediately directed to the Headteacher who should contact Judicium as DPO in order to assist with the request and what is required. There are limited timescales within which the School must respond to a request and any delay could result in failing to meet those timescales, which could lead to enforcement action by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and/or legal action by the affected individual. If ever in doubt, please refer the request to the Headteacher,

Acknowledging the Request

When receiving a SAR the School shall acknowledge the request as soon as possible and inform the requester about the statutory deadline (of one calendar month) to respond to the request.

In addition to acknowledging the request, the School may ask for:

- proof of ID (if needed);
- further clarification about the requested information if it is not clear what information is required;
- if it is not clear where the information shall be sent, the School must clarify what address/email address to use when sending the requested information; and/or
- consent (if requesting third party data).

The School should work with their DPO in order to create the acknowledgment.

Verifying the Identity of a Requester or Requesting Clarification of the Request

Before responding to a SAR, the School will take reasonable steps to verify the identity of the person making the request. In the case of current employees and current students, this will usually be straightforward. The School is entitled to request additional information from a requester in order to verify whether the requester is in fact who they say they are. Where the School has reasonable doubts as to the identity of the individual making the request, evidence of identity may be established by production of a passport, driving license, a recent utility bill with current address, birth/marriage certificate, credit card or a mortgage statement.

If an individual is requesting a large amount of data the School may ask the requester for more information for the purpose of clarifying the request, but the requester shall never be required to confirm why the request has been made. The School shall let the requestor know as soon as possible where more information is needed before responding to the request.

When it is necessary to verify the identity of the person making the request, the one calendar month period for responding begins when sufficient confirmation of identity is provided.

When it is necessary to request more information for the purpose of clarifying the request, the one calendar month period for responding may be paused when further information is requested and does not restart until sufficient clarification is provided.

In both cases, the school will be unable to comply with the request if they do not receive the additional information.

Requests Made by Third Parties or on Behalf of Children

The school need to be satisfied that the third party making the request is entitled to act on behalf of the individual, but it is the third party's responsibility to provide evidence of this entitlement. This might be a written authority to make the request, or it might be a more general power of attorney. The School may also require proof of identity in certain circumstances.

If the School is in any doubt or has any concerns as to providing the personal data of the data subject to the third party, then it should provide the information requested directly to the data subject. It is then a matter for the data subject to decide whether to share this information with any third party.

When requests are made on behalf of children, it is important to note that even if a child is too young to understand the implications of subject access rights, it is still the right of the child, rather than of anyone else such as a parent or guardian, to have access to the child's personal data. Before responding to a SAR for information held about a child, the School should consider whether the child is mature enough to understand their rights. If the school is confident that the child can understand their rights, then the School should usually respond directly to the child or seek their consent before releasing their information.

It shall be assessed if the child is able to understand (in broad terms) what it means to make a subject access request and how to interpret the information they receive as a result of doing so. When considering borderline cases, it should be taken into account, among other things:

- the child's level of maturity and their ability to make decisions like this;
- the nature of the personal data;
- any court orders relating to parental access or responsibility that may apply;
- any duty of confidence owed to the child or young person;
- any consequences of allowing those with parental responsibility access to the child's or young person's information. This is particularly important if there have been allegations of abuse or ill treatment;
- any detriment to the child or young person if individuals with parental responsibility cannot access this information; and
- any views the child or young person has on whether their parents should have access to information about them.

Generally, a person aged 12 years or over is presumed to be of sufficient age and maturity to be able to exercise their right of access, unless the contrary is shown. In relation to a child 12 years of age or older, then provided that the School is confident that they understand their rights and there is no reason to believe that the child does not have the capacity to make a request on their own behalf, the School will require the written authorisation of the child before responding to the requester or provide the personal data directly to the child.

The School may also refuse to provide information to parents if there are consequences of allowing access to the child's information – for example, if it is likely to cause detriment to the child.

Fee For Responding to a SAR

The School will usually deal with a SAR free of charge. Where a request is considered to be manifestly unfounded or excessive a fee to cover administrative costs may be requested. If a request is considered to be manifestly unfounded or unreasonable the School will inform the requester why this is considered to be the case and that the School may charge a fee for complying with the request.

A fee may also be requested in relation to repeat requests for copies of the same information. In these circumstances a reasonable fee will be charged taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information.

If a fee is requested, the period of responding begins when the fee has been received.

Time Period for Responding to a SAR

The School has one calendar month to respond to a SAR. This will run from the day that the request was received or from the day when any additional identification or other information requested is received, or payment of any required fee has been received. If the deadline to comply with the request falls on the weekend or public holiday, the deadline will be the next working day.

The circumstances where the School is in any reasonable doubt as to the identity of the requester, this period will not commence unless and until sufficient information has been provided by the requester as to their identity and in the case of a third-party requester, the written authorisation of the data subject has been received. Where the school may be required to get consent from a pupil, the time period will not start until consent is received.

The period for response may be extended by a further two calendar months in relation to complex requests. What constitutes a complex request will depend on the particular nature of the request. The DPO must always be consulted in determining whether a request is sufficiently complex as to extend the response period.

Where a request is considered to be sufficiently complex as to require an extension of the period for response, the School will need to notify the requester within one calendar month of receiving the request, together with reasons as to why this extension is considered necessary.

School Closure Periods

The school may not be able to respond to requests received during or just before school closure periods within the one calendar month response period. This is because the School will be closed, no one will be on site to comply with the request and we do not routinely review emails during this period. As a result, it is unlikely that your request will be able to be dealt with during this time. We may not be able to acknowledge your request during this time (i.e., until a time when we receive the request). However, if we can acknowledge the request, we may still not be able to deal with it until the School re-opens. The School will endeavour to comply with requests as soon as possible and will keep in communication with you as far as possible. If your request is urgent, please provide your request during term times and not during/close to closure periods.

Commented [SH5]: We strongly recommend having an automated acknowledgment response set up for school closure periods, explaining when the school will be able to process and respond to the SAR, if not possible during the school closure period.

Information to be Provided in Response to a Request

The individual is entitled to receive access to the personal data we process about him or her and the supplementary information listed above.

The information should be provided in a way that is concise, transparent, easy to understand and easy to access using clear and plain language, with any technical terms, abbreviations or codes explained.

Where a request is made by electronic means, and unless the requestor asks otherwise, the School will normally provide the information in a commonly used electronic format (for example, PDF). The format of the response will reflect the method of the request where reasonable and appropriate, unless the requestor specifies another preferred, reasonable and appropriate, format.

The information that the School are required to supply in response to a SAR must be supplied by reference to the data in question at the time the request was received. However, as the School have one month in which to respond the School is allowed to take into account any amendment or deletion made to the personal data between the time the request is received and the time the personal data is supplied if such amendment or deletion would have been made regardless of the receipt of the SAR.

Therefore, the School is allowed to carry out regular housekeeping activities even if this means deleting or amending personal data after the receipt of a SAR. The School is not allowed to amend or delete data to avoid supplying the data.

How to Locate Information

The personal data the School need to provide in response to a data subject access request may be located in several of the electronic and manual filing systems. This is why it is important to identify at the outset the type of information requested so that the search can be focused.

Depending on the type of information requested, the School may need to search all or some of the following:

- electronic systems, e.g., databases, networked and non-networked computers, servers, customer records, human resources system, email data, back up data, CCTV;
- manual filing systems in which personal data is accessible according to specific criteria, e.g., chronologically ordered sets of manual records containing personal data;
- data systems held externally by our data processors;
- safeguarding systems (such as CPOMS);
- MIS system (such as SIMS);
- occupational health records;
- pensions data;
- share scheme information;
- insurance benefit information.

We will handle data subject rights requests and searches in a manner that is reasonable and proportionate to the nature of the request, the amount of data involved, and the effort required. We will not conduct searches that would impose a disproportionate burden on our operations where this would go beyond what is reasonable to locate personal data.

Protection of Third Parties - Exemptions to the Right of Subject Access

There are circumstances where information can be withheld pursuant to a SAR. These specific exemptions and requests should be considered on a case by case basis.

The School will consider whether it is possible to redact information so that this does not identify those third parties. If their data cannot be redacted (for example, after redaction it is still obvious who the data relates to) then the School do not have to disclose personal data to the extent that doing so would involve disclosing information relating to another individual (including information identifying the other individual as the source of information) who can be identified from the information unless:

- the other individual has consented to the disclosure; or
- it is reasonable to comply with the request without that individual's consent.

In determining whether it is reasonable to disclose the information without the individual's consent, all of the relevant circumstances will be taken into account, including:

- the type of information that they would disclose;
- any duty of confidentiality they owe to the other individual;
- any steps taken to seek consent from the other individual;
- whether the other individual is capable of giving consent; and
- any express refusal of consent by the other individual.

It needs to be decided whether it is appropriate to disclose the information in each case. This decision will involve balancing the data subject's right of access against the other individual's rights. If the other person consents to the school disclosing the information about them, then it would be unreasonable not to do so. However, if there is no such consent, the school must decide whether to disclose the information anyway. If there are any concerns in this regard, then the DPO should be consulted.

Other Exemptions to the Right of Subject Access

In certain circumstances the School may be exempt from providing some or all of the personal data requested. These exemptions are described below and should only be applied on a case-by-case basis after a careful consideration of all the facts.

Crime detection and prevention: The School do not have to disclose any personal data being processed for the purposes of preventing or detecting crime; apprehending or prosecuting offenders; or assessing or collecting any tax or duty.

Confidential references: The School do not have to disclose any confidential references given to, or received from, third parties for the purpose of actual or prospective:

- education, training or employment of the individual;
- appointment of the individual to any office; or
- provision by the individual of any service

Legal professional privilege: The School do not have to disclose any personal data which is subject to legal professional privilege.

Management forecasting: The School do not have to disclose any personal data processed for the purposes of management forecasting or management planning to assist us in the conduct of any business or any other activity, to the extent that disclosure of the information would be likely to prejudice the conduct of the School's business or other activity.

Negotiations: The School do not have to disclose any personal data consisting of records of intentions in relation to any negotiations with the individual where doing so would be likely to prejudice those negotiations.

Refusing to Respond to a Request

The school can refuse to comply with a request if the request in certain circumstances. These include:

- Where the SAR is manifestly unfounded or excessive, taking into account whether the request is repetitive in nature;
- To avoid obstructing an official or legal inquiry, investigation or procedure;
- To avoid prejudicing the prevention, detection, investigation or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties;
- To protect public security;
- To protect national security;
- To protect the rights and freedoms of others.

In the event that you have concerns about supplying the information, you must always refer the matter to the Headteacher who will seek advice from the DPO and who will make the decision on our behalf.

In the event that we decide not to comply with the SAR, then the data subject must be informed, without undue delay (and in all cases within one month of receipt of the request), of:

- The reasons we are not taking action;
- That they have a right to make a complaint to the ICO or another supervisory authority; and
- That they are entitled to seek to enforce their right through a judicial remedy.

If a request is found to be manifestly unfounded or excessive the school can:

- request a "reasonable fee" to deal with the request; or
- refuse to deal with the request.

In either case the school need to justify the decision and inform the requestor about the decision.

The reasonable fee should be based on the administrative costs of complying with the request. If deciding to charge a fee the school should contact the individual promptly and inform them. The school do not need to comply with the request until the fee has been received.

Record Keeping

A record of all subject access requests shall be kept by the Headteacher. The record shall include the date the SAR was received, the name of the requester, what data the School sent to the requester and the date of the response.

Appendix 2 – Subject Access Request Form

Appendix 3 – Data Protection Complaints

Under Data Protection Law, individuals have the right to raise concerns or make complaints about the way their personal data has been handled. This includes concerns about how the School collects, stores, uses, shares, or secures personal data, as well as how the School has responded to a previous data protection related request (for example, a Subject Access Request).

The purpose of this right is to ensure that individuals can easily challenge potential non-compliance, seek clarification or correction, and help the School to continually improve its data protection practices.

This appendix provides guidance for staff on how to handle data protection complaints and for individuals on how to submit one.

Failure to address data protection complaints appropriately can expose the School to enforcement action by the ICO and reputational risk. The School therefore treats all complaints seriously and in accordance with this policy.

What is a Data Protection Complaint?

A data protection complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction from an individual (or their authorised representative) about how the School has processed their personal data or handles a data protection request.

Examples include complaints about:

- Inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated information being held;
- Personal data being used or shared without lawful basis;
- A delay or failure to respond to a Subject Access Request or other data rights request;
- Inappropriate disclosure or loss of personal data;
- Lack of transparency in how data is collected or used;
- Concerns about automated decision-making or profiling; or,
- Any other alleged breach of the UK GDPR or Data Protection Act 2018.

A complaint does not need to reference “data protection” or “UK GDPR” to be valid; any statement indicating concern about how personal data has been handled must be treated as such.

How to Make a Data Protection Complaint

Individuals can make a complaint verbally or in writing (including by email, letter, or online form). To help ensure a full and efficient investigation, complainants are encouraged to use the Data Protection Complaint Form provided below in Appendix 4, providing:

- Their name and contact details;
- A clear description of the concern;
- Any relevant dates, correspondence, or evidence; and,
- The outcome they seek.

Complaints should be directed to the Headteacher in writing, with the subject ‘Data Protection Complaint’ via the school office ( office@stbernadettesschool.com )

Acknowledging and Investigating a Complaint:

The School will acknowledge the complaint within 30 days of receipt. The acknowledgment will confirm that the complaint has been received, outline the next steps, and provide contact details for any questions.

Where clarification or additional evidence is required to investigate the complaint properly, the response timeframe may be paused until sufficient information has been provided. All complaints will be handled confidentially and investigated promptly, fairly, and proportionately.

The School will aim to provide a substantive response as soon as reasonably practicable. The investigation may involve consultation with relevant departments, review of systems or records, and advice from the School DPO.

Outcome of a Complaint

Following investigation, the School will provide a written response setting out:

- The findings of the investigation;
- Any corrective or preventative action the School will take (if appropriate); and,
- The right to escalate the matter to the ICO if the complainant remains dissatisfied.

Complaints Received During School Closure Periods

The School will endeavour to acknowledge and investigate complaints as soon as reasonably practicable. However, during school closure periods, offices and systems may not be routinely monitored, which could delay acknowledgment and investigation. Where a complaint is received during such a period, the School will:

- Record the date of receipt;
- Acknowledgment the complaint as soon as possible; and,
- Provide an update to the complainant once the School reopens.

Complainants who require an urgent response are encouraged to submit their complaint during term time wherever possible.

Record Keeping

The School will maintain a record of all data protection complaints, including:

- The date the complaint was received;
- The complainant's name;
- The nature of the complaint;
- Any key investigative steps taken;
- The outcome and date of response; and,
- Any follow-up actions taken.

Records will be retained in accordance with the School's Records Retention Schedule.

Parental Permission, Consent and Agreements

Dear Parents and Carers,

The following paragraphs outline activities for which we need to obtain your specific permission, consent or agreement (PCAs). Your PCAs will stand for the time your child is at St Bernadette's or until legislation requires us to amend the details.

Parents and carers may withdraw PCAs at any time; this must be done formally in a letter addressed to the Headteacher. The Headteacher will respond in writing within two weeks of receipt of withdrawal of PCAs.

Please read each statement carefully and respond with either Yes or No to demonstrate whether you are or are not providing your permission, consent or agreement.

Our Privacy Notices can be found on our website: <https://www.stbernadetteschool.com/school-policies/>

THE INTERNET

Internet access is part of the statutory curriculum. Pupils will be given clear objectives for Internet use and staff will select sites which will support the planned learning outcomes. Some of the material used in school will be on a cache system which means the children will not be live on the Internet. However, there may be occasions when direct access is required and it is for these occasions that we need your permission. Our Internet access provider operates a filtering system that restricts access to known inappropriate materials. Every endeavour will be made to ensure suitable restrictions are effective. However, neither the school nor Milton Keynes Council will be held responsible for the nature or content of material accessed through the Internet. Parents will be informed if any inappropriate material is viewed.

I give my permission for my child to access the Internet within school.

SCHOOL VISITS AND ACTIVITIES

Children will take part in activities offsite and sometimes outside school hours. These activities are planned to support the curriculum and/or to provide additional opportunities, which we hope your child will find helpful and enjoyable, e.g. visiting the locality, another school, museums, swimming lessons etc. Such visits and activities will be properly organised and all reasonable precautions will be taken for the safety and wellbeing of your child. Nevertheless, it is possible that your child may be exposed to additional hazards, e.g. accidents in the course of travel or sporting activities, when urgent medical treatment might be needed in circumstances where it is not possible to contact the parent/carer. In this situation, we hope you would be willing to agree that the teacher in charge of any party may give the necessary consent on your behalf. Please note that for longer trips parents will receive more detailed information and you will need to give specific written permission for these visits, separate from this form.

CCTV

CCTV cameras are located on the external area of the school site and the reception area and are there to promote the safety and security of the school and the local community. They were upgraded in February 2018 on the advice of the police who, when responding to an incident in the locality, found that the images were unclear and therefore unhelpful in their investigation. We adhere to the ICO's code of practice for the use of CCTV. Security cameras are clearly visible and accompanied by prominent signs explaining that CCTV is in use. We do not need to ask individuals' permission to use CCTV.
